

Correspondence Course

Why Should I Do The Level 2 Correspondence Course?

There are many reasons for wanting to enjoy the satisfaction of gaining certification via our correspondence course.

- You may be a high or low handicap player who wants to help others and yourself to rapid improvement.
- You may be unable to manage 9 consecutive days vacation, or be unable to commit to a specific date.
- You may have family, work or personal commitments.
- You may have insufficient confidence, or believe that the correspondence course offers a wonderful opportunity to prepare yourself for certification at your own pace.
- You can take as long as you require completing the certification course.

What are the benefits of the Correspondence Course?

- Start now rather than wait
- Work at own pace
- No vacation left
- Save on residential & travel costs
- Build confidence & skills
- Use knowledge from course to improve your own game

Why Does The Correspondence Course Work So Well?

We have carefully designed the course to offer the same learning's as attending the residential course. You will receive tapes on live lectures conducted on previous residential courses plus videos of all the drills.

What Do I Need To Know?

The correspondence course allows you all the time you require to attain the knowledge and experience needed to become a great coach. It will give you time to ponder on areas of great interest or where you need a little more practice to achieve the necessary standards.

The correspondence course

- works to produce outstanding results while increasing your knowledge and confidence
- is like no other as it truly allows you to learn as you would on the course, but at your own pace with total confidence
- it allows you to choose a golfing student to work with during the entirety of the course. They will give specific feedback directly to you and us
- has separate section, where you will be set specific tasks, ensuring your understanding and offering you practical opportunities to enjoy your new skills.

How Long Will It Take To Complete The Course?

That will depend entirely on you. The courses take between 50-80 hours depending on your experience and depth to which you are prepared to study. You will be able, confident and ready to coach anyone and achieve results that will inspire your clients to tell others about your newfound skills.

What Happens When I Pass?

On satisfactory completion of the course, you will be awarded with level one or two certification and after you have successfully attended the two-day full diploma certification, you will be awarded the full diploma level 3 certification and allows you to join the World Golf Teachers Federation.
