

Diploma level 3

Certification in golf coaching excellence

Do you love the game and want to inspire others to learn to play golf and play better golf? Do you see yourself inspiring development in our youth, females or seniors? Would you like to earn extra money or engineer a complete career change, here or abroad? Have you have been coaching for years yet know your knowledge should be producing better results? Whatever your reasons, this is your chance to learn these completely unique skills designed to give you the cutting edge in a competitive market.

Our organisation and training is designed to guarantee any golfer from beginner to tour player will attain their desired goals, when coached by you, using our unique methods, systems, processes and skills. Once you have learned these skills you can decide to go on to enjoy the financial benefit of your investment. Those like you who have, also enjoy our essential help and support necessary to develop their coaching practice, taking their skills to a new dimension.

What unique skills will you learn when gaining the Level 3-certification of excellence?

- ✓ Philosophies & strategies so different and advanced which deliver results
- ✓ The secrets of feedback not taught specifically anywhere else in the world of coaching, meaning, your client has the potential to learn anything from you
- ✓ Lesson process & structure, offering you maximum effectiveness giving you the required confidence
- ✓ A complete and comprehensive understanding of the current market place and how to find locations and generate new business

Benefits

- ✓ A new life purpose, worthy of your passion and enthusiasm
- ✓ The rewards which emanate from inspiring others
- ✓ Belonging to the largest worldwide, coach only, organisation
- ✓ The opportunity pass on your experience and knowledge to others
- ✓ The freedom to work when and where you want
- ✓ Belonging to an organisation which cares about you and your goals

What else is in it for you?

- ✓ Head office support and back-up from our experienced team on a daily basis
- ✓ Security and peace of mind because you train while in your current vocation
- ✓ Operate your own coach training business
- ✓ A marketing system guaranteeing an endless stream of satisfied clients
- ✓ The benefits of earning extra income
- ✓ Website "find a coach" facility, driving clients directly to you

Facts

- ✓ You can learn easily, quickly, mostly at home and while still in full time employment
- ✓ You don't have to be a good player to be an outstanding golf coach
- ✓ The skills required to be an outstanding golf coach are different from those of being a player
- ✓ The demand for outstanding golf coaches has never been greater

Level 3 Diploma

Stage 1: On-line seminars and interactive training

When becoming a successful golf coach there is an extensive volume of essential skills and philosophies to comprehend while gaining a definitive understanding of the benchmarks you will aspire to achieve. Stage 1 offers you the incredible opportunity of discovering these innovative methodologies, techniques and unique processes that will make anyone an outstanding coach. Every single piece of information you will need to learn to qualify to Level 3 is included in this section. Stage 2 and 3 solidify your learnings and offer you the chance to practice and receive expert feedback.

Footage captured for previous trainings, new live trainings and specially recorded seminars mean you will learn the essentials then attending further on-line interactive conferences and seminars you meet your fellow trainees and have all your questions answered while discovering many more to ask. You will be invited to complete studies at home to ensure you have understood these bench marks before moving on to the residential stage.

This information includes cutting edge technologies and systems, leaving you leaps and bounds ahead of the opposition, guaranteeing an incredible return on your investment whatever the future holds for you.

Stage 1 can be started immediately and we suggest if you intend to qualify for your level 3 diploma that you attend the residential stage within 3 months of completing. Once stage 1 is concluded satisfactorily you will be awarded your 'Level 1 Certification in Golf Coaching'.

Stage 2: 5 Day Residential***

Already possessing the essential knowledge, now is the time to solidify and practice those skills learnt in stage 1. Practical application and the feedback you receive now accelerate you rapidly to a high level of competence which any client recognises immediately as unique and highly professional. There are many assessment criteria which are all achievable. When this stage is concluded satisfactorily you will be awarded your 'Level 2 certification in Golf Coaching' and given 'Practitioner Level 3 Golf Coach' status.

This may be the most intensive period you have spent learning, in a lifetime. The camaraderie builds from day one until the end when you will have new networking friends for life. We usually meet the night before the official start, especially when abroad. Each day will be full of incredible learning experiences you will recognise as life changing opportunities and essential in your future role as a golf coach

Each session brings new and exciting insights into what you thought you already knew and understanding and feedback to what you do know.

Everyone can succeed first time in gaining their practitioner, especially when your preparation has been thorough.

Stage 3: Level 3 Full Certification***

Completed at your own pace, (minimum 1 month and up to 1 year) involving further home study, acting on agreed personal coaching improvement plan, delivering case histories for assessment and continuing to communicate on a daily basis. Also, joining interactive on-line discussion groups and training before attending a final one day practical assessment where you are awarded your fully qualified 'Level 3 Golf Coach' status.

Once you are awarded your full level 3 certification we guarantee you have the necessary skills to satisfy every client while enjoying the rewards so richly deserving of your efforts.

Your new career starts now.

*Stage 2 and 3 can also be achieved using a 1-2-1 online process for those abroad